The sale grossed $ at this time $10,783.41. $1,964 has been paid to the Community Center. $400 was for rent and the remainder is the 15% of the gross required by the center. There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

Allied Arts Business meeting
Sept. 26, 1984

The business meeting was held at the Bolinas Rod & Boat a beautiful place for an allied Arts gathering. The president Peggy Duncan had some difficulty calling the meeting to order in the face of an invasion of anchovies.

Most of the meeting was devoted to a discussions of grants suggested by the Contributions committee.

Grants proposed were as follows:

Stinson Beach Community Church	1,000
West Marin Community Chorus	750
Human Concern Center	600
West Marin Senior Services	600
S.F. Light House for the Blind	300
Hospice of marin	700
Guide Dogs for the Blind	150

It was recalled that previously approved were grants to the Stinson Beach Co. Library in the sum of $230 for subscriptions for books, and $200 was appropriated for Christmas gifts for patients & Nursing homes. $200 Marin Co. Food Bank At the request of the Treasurer and Coordinator of the Bolinas-Stinson Library Society no grant was given as in the past because the Society had had a very successful book sale and membership drive during the past year.

Upon the motion of Adelaide McCready seconded by Mary Penn the membership unanimously approved the recommendations of the Contributions Committee. The ~~in~~ was composed of Martha Scarlett, Chairman, Betty Alexander, Jeanne Carnise, and Toya Moran.

President Duncan appointed Ruth Smith and Joane Hamler to be co-chairmen of the Allied Arts Gift Elephant table at the November Bazar - Thank you to Lillian Letter for delicious dessert
There being no further business meeting adjourned to for a delightful reception at the home of Betty Alexander.

Chas Jones — Sec.

Business meeting April 24

The meeting was called to order at 12:30 PM Shirley Harkness acted as secretary in the Jones absence.

Helen Kerr reported on the Allied Arts Cookbook project that she and Richard Christensen are planning. The sales for a previous cookbook some years ago were highly successful. An advance of $1,000 was requested so printing could begin. As in the past sales will more than pay for the cost, in fact Allied Arts should make a good profit. Upon the motion of Ruth Smith seconded by Peggy Duncan the advance was approved unanimously.

The president announced that a memorial gift for June LaCaze had been sent to the S.E. Community church. Before her illness the past few years June was active in allied arts and was a financial contributor during this time.

Virginia Bentley requested plants for the Rummage sale.

Joanne Harsha reminded the membership to pay 1st qtr dues.

The president asked for suggestions for entertainment for the May meeting. Adelaide McCready suggested that the members bring photographs of themselves when they were children. The photos would be flashed on a screen. There would be a contest to determine who could guess the identities of each. Prizes would be offered. This suggestion was enthusiastically received.

Ruth Smith was thanked for the delicious cake.

Mary Secord volunteered to be hostess for the May meeting.

Nancy Sulcivan was the speaker on the gardens of Barbara Cheralier. The meeting adjourned and the group lead by Nancy toured these gardens.

Shirley Harkness for Char Jones.

MAY 22 1985

Pres Scarlett announced that a memorial gift had been sent To S.B. Church in memory of Ed Leary.

Minutes read and approved.

Each member was asked To bring a picture of themself as a child. Adelaide McCready, with the help of Bill Burley, showed the pictures on a screen & members had To write down their guess. The show was a wild success and Adelaide McCready's hard work was will worthwhile.
Loretta Boyd won first prize for the most correct guesses.

The meeting was adjourned

July 31 1985

Vice-Pres. Ruth Danielson chaired the meeting in Pres. Martha Scarlett absence

Minutes read and accepted.

Treas report — $47,955.00 To date. We can not dispurse any more money than the net profit from the rummage sale.

Last year we gave $6,000.00 odd dollars in grants.

Ruth Smith asked if perhaps we should have a sign up sheet for refreshments or should Allied Arts pay for a caterer?

Shirly Hutchinson said many young people should be involved in the rummage and community work.

The rummage sale is endangered without young people becoming involved.

Ruth Daniels on pointed out many are working mothers.
Chas Jones suggested a yr. auxiliary for allied arts.

Ruth Dandea said the Pre-School is having a fashion show in Oct. and it would be wonderful if allied arts could help in some way.
She suggested a tea for pre-School people To see if any interest is shown — also perhaps night meeting.
Shirley Burkhalter reported

That at the last meeting of the C. Center the members of organizations discussed the new roof — and decided on SHAKE at a fair price of $10,500. (Brockett Construction).
